Dear Student,

Congratulations on your decision to attend the University of Pittsburgh Titusville this fall. There are still many preparations ahead as you near the start of your college career and now it's time to look forward to orientation.

The Pitt-Titusville New Student Orientation Program is scheduled for Saturday, August 24th with optional activities Saturday evening and Sunday, August 25th. All resident students will be able to move in Saturday morning, August 24th prior to starting the orientation program that afternoon.

Orientation will give you an opportunity to get to know other students, help you understand policies and procedures, and enable you to become familiar with faculty, staff, activities, and services on campus. Throughout the event we will explore the many offerings on campus.

Parents are welcome to assist with moving resident students in and checking in for orientation, as well as have lunch with their new student Saturday, August 24th, however there are no programs specifically for parents. All the session Saturday afternoon are centered on the student and parents and guests cannot attend those sessions with the students.

All new students are expected to attend the New Student Orientation Program. Please complete the online Orientation Response form noting the number of people attending who will be attending the events the opening day with you by August 9th.

If you have any questions regarding the New Student Orientation Program, please contact the Office of Student Affairs by calling 814-827-4460 or sending an email to uptstu@pitt.edu.

The University of Pittsburgh Titusville faculty and staff look forward to meeting you August 24th during the New Student Orientation Program as you begin your college journey at the University of Pittsburgh Titusville.

Sincerely,

Stephanie Fiely
Director of Student Life
